PERFECT ATTENDANCE PARTY AT ELEMENTARY

Two hundred and five children with a perfect attendance record, who had not been tardy since the beginning of school in September, were guests at the party given by Wm. Bell, Jr., in the elementary school auditorium last Thursday afternoon. Some of the children who entered junior high school Friday had attended this affair for the past six years.

Children who attend this party receive a perfect attendance certificate and a bar of candy, to say nothing of the choice entertainment.

The party Friday was a costume affair and prizes were awarded. Judges who picked the winning costumes included Marion Hiss, Mabel-Ella Sweet and Nell Lynch, teachers in the school. These winning the prizes were as follows: The most original costume, Raymond Blake; the prettiest costume, Marcia Rous; the funniest girl, Eileen Whiting; the funniest boy, Hoyt Moore; the smallest child in costume, Donnie Cook; the largest child in costume, Bernadine Brown.

CENTRAL GUILD MEETS WEDNESDAY

WILL LIVE IN TORRANCE

Miss Lucile Schock, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Schock, 25707 South Walnut street, Lomita, will be married Saturday morning, February 10, to Mr. Verne Markham, son of Mrs. Sadie Markham, also of Lomita. The wedding will take place at 7:30 a. m. at St. Peter and Paul's Catholic church, at Wilmington, Father Schiparrich officiating.

The young people will be attended by Mrs. A. LaMour of Hollywood, as matron of honor, and Mr. J. Frint of Harbor City, as best man. Following the ceremony they will leave on a short wedding trip and return to make their home in Torrance where Mr. Markham is employed as inspector in the Columbia Steel plant.

NEW MEMBER ELECTED

Miss Margaret Richhart, secretary to Judge Charles T. Rippey, was elected to membership in the Torrance club, National Business and Professional Women, at the meeting held Monday evening. Following the business session during which the committee on the benefit card party reported progress, and completed instructions for the workers, the meeting was turned over to the international relations chairman, Miss Beatrice Hughes, who gave a short talk on international topics of interest. Other matters of public interest at the moment were discussed briefly by Edna Mullin, Ethelwyn Niles, Edna Schmidt, Margaret Shoberg and Lute Fraser.

Plans are practically complete for the card party to be given for the benefit of the Girl Scouts, which will be held tomorrow night at the Recreation hall, 1952 Carson street, to which the public is cordially invited. Tallies at 35 cents may be obtained from members of the club, Girl Scouts, or purchased at the door. A door prize and prizes for bridge and 500 will be awarded.
